 RODEO

Bob Berg, a house hold name in any rodeo family. While we know him for his beautiful buckles, Berg has has had a hand at just about everything. He started his career off with a bang, the small town of Rosewater, in South Australia,. Eventually becoming the Californian bareback bronc riding champion, as well as known saddle bronc name here in Australia. However, Berg is not just rodeo man, he's a business man with a love for rodeo.

In the 1970's and 1980's, Berg started the Bob Berg Championship Rodeo Equipment, expanding his talents to the Bob Berg saddle bronc & bareback riding school, travelling all over the world sharing his knowledge and expertise.

Today, Berg spends his days supplying us with the best of the best rodeo Buckles, for our up and coming rodeo stars.
